

HYMN : ORTUM, VITAM ET EXITUM

Lauds hymn for the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas

Hymnus
III.

Comi-tantur, quæ meri-tum Monstrant ad cæli præmi-a.

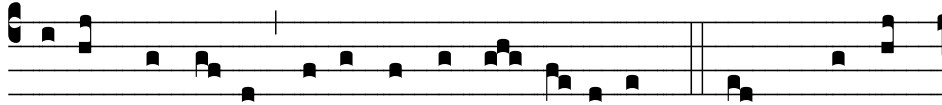

2. Augustinus in glori-a Hunc si-bi parem prædi-cat, Sed

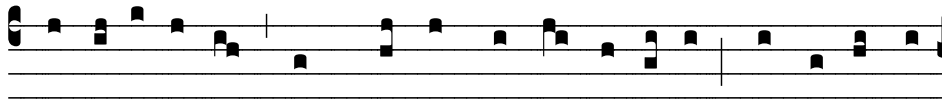

Thomam castimoni-a, Se mitra plus digni-fi-cat. 3. Inno-tu-it ora-cu-lo, Glo-ri-a quanta præminet, Quem præmiorum cumu-lo Seraphin ordo conti-net. 4. Ad Christum pro labo-ri-bus Dum migrat doctor popu-li, Migrantis ta-cti pedi-bus Illu-minantur o-cu-li. 5. Sit patri laus ac ge-ni-to Simulque sancto flami-ni, Qui sancti Thomæ me-ri-to Nos cæ-li jungant agmi-ni. Amen.

Produced by the Society of St. Bede.

Music; retypeset from Antiphonale 19, using Caeciliae typeface.

Latin Text, Analecta Hymnica Vol. 43, pg. 299. This Hymn is found in a number of German Manuscripts with minor variations c. 1400-1500. We do not have the original music for this Hymn so have set it to a Common tone from the Roman Antiphonal.