

HYMN : VERI TONANTIS UNICUM

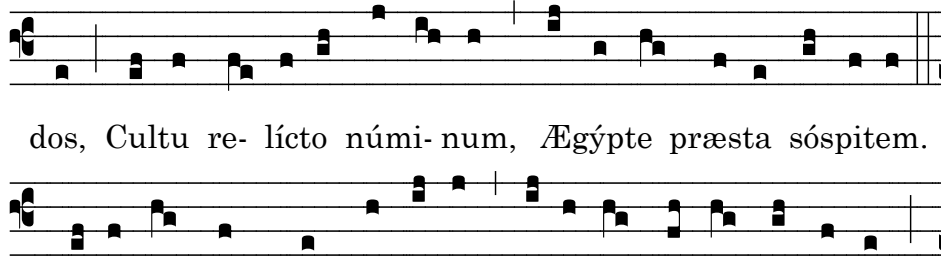

Lauds hymn for the feast of The Flight into Egypt

II.

V

E-ri To-nántis úni-cum, Enses ca-véntem pérfi-dos, Cultu re-lícto númi-num, Ægýpte præsta sóspitem.

2. Heró-dis hunc immá-ni-tas Abí-re co-git éxsu-lem :

Sed dura nos Christi fu-ga I-ter sa-lú-tis é-do-cet.

3. Virgo Parens dul-cís-sima, Quæ mil-le per pe-rí-cu-la

Dulcem fe-réndo párvu-lum, Invícta cursum cónfi-cis :

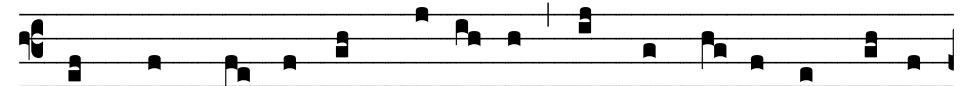

4. Fac nos, so-lú-tis víncu-lis, Quæ tendit astus dáemonis,

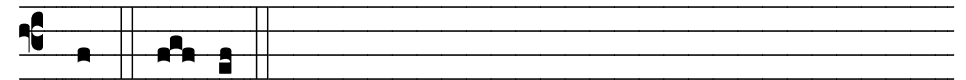

Per plana, per et ás-pe-ra Nostrum sequámur Príncipem

6. Je-su ti-bi sit gló-ri-a, Qui natus es de Vírgi-ne,

Cum Patre et almo Spí-ri-tu, In sempi-térna sæ-cu-

la. Amen.

Produced by the Society of St. Bede.

Music: re-typeset from , using Caeciliae typeface,

Translation, Breviary hymns and missal sequences, Archbishop Edward G.

Bagshawe, 1829-1915

1. To the true Thunderer's Only Son,
Escaping from the treacherous sword,
Leaving the worship of thy gods,
Haste, Egypt, safety to afford.

2. Him Herod's cruelty compels,
An exile from his home to go,
But the hard flight of Christ avails
To us the Heavenward way to show

3. O sweetest Virgin Mother, who
Didst through a thousand risks defend
Thy sweet Son Jesus, and didst reach
Successfully thy journey's end,

4. Undo the bonds which Satan's wiles
Have woven round us, that we may,
Ever thro' rough ways and thro' plain
Our Leader follow and obey.

5. Jesus, to Thee be glory given,
Whom erst the Virgin Mother bore,
With Father and with Holy Ghost,
For endless ages evermore. Amen.